

Rick Hawksley, AIA

160 North Chestnut St. Ravenna, Ohio 44266

330-715-2354 rick@hawksley.org

38 years' experience in a broad range of architecture, preservation, master planning and urban design projects. Special interest and experience with historical and existing buildings.

Master of Architecture and B.S. Architecture degrees from Kent State University.

Design with a Vision, owner and lead architect

Design with a Vision: projects

- Multiple Private Residential Additions/Renovations of Historic Properties in Northeast Ohio.
- May Prentice House, Kent State University
Relocation, design and adaptive re-use of historic home. Project cost: $1 Million.
- Kent Wells Sherman House
Relocation, design and adaptive re-use of historic home into rentable meeting space, private office and commercial space. Project Cost: $200,000 plus in-kind.
- Smucker House, Salem, Ohio
Accessibility improvements.
- Historic Structure Assessment, Salem, Ohio.
City-wide project, 2014
- Tappan-Stinnaf Mansion, Ravenna, Ohio
Restoration of c1840 structure. For commercial and residential use.
- Lucky Penny Creamery, Kent
Renovation of industrial building for food production.
- Journey Covenant Church, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.
Additions and modifications to 5,000sf building.
- Preservation planning project, City of Tallmadge
Creation of annotated list of heritage structures within the city.
- Randolph Town Hall
Architect for restoration of historic building.
- Harter Barn, Summit Metroparks (Summit County, Ohio)
Design and supervision of foundation and roof restoration.
- Adaptive Reuse design of 184 S. Broadway, 1860 Structure
- Old Brick Tavern, Conneaut, Ohio
Repairs to the 1823 structure.
- Carnegie Library, Conneaut, Ohio
Building evaluation and design concepts, 1908 structure.
- Riddle Block 9, Ravenna, Ohio

- Building Assessment and Maintenance Plan for 1910 structure. Catholic Charities, client.
- Ripepi Funeral Home Community Building, Parma, Ohio
Additions and renovations.
 - Additions and renovations to dozens of historic residential properties in northeastern Ohio

Fuller Design Group: projects

A selection of projects as a lead architect from nearly 20 years with the firm:

- Crooked River Inn and Conference Center (Design Development) , Cuyahoga Valley National Park
- Old Kent Jail, Kent, Ohio
Relocation, restoration and re-listing of the National Landmark Building structure.
- Hay Press Barn, Indiana Department of Natural Resources
Documentation for relocation. (Lawrence Sulzer, collaborator)
- Multiple individual preservation/restoration/adaptive reuse projects
Various locations in northern Ohio
- Office and church facilities
Various locations in northeastern Ohio.

City of Shaker Heights

Preservation Planner for the city of Shaker Heights, Ohio in the mid 1980s. Worked on the preservation of historic commercial and residential structures, and was the staff liaison to the Architectural Review board.

Leadership

- Current
 - Ravenna Design Review Commission, Chair
 - Green-Sprout Inc. (school gardens), Chair
 - Kent Wells Sherman House, Treasurer
 - Main Street Ravenna Design Committee, Member
- Former (partial list)
 - Western Reserve Land Conservancy, founding trustee and Board of Directors
 - At-Large Councilman, City of Kent
 - Portage Area Regional Transportation Authority, President
 - Portage Land Association Conservation and Education, Co-Founder
 - Haymaker Farmers Market, Co-Founder
 - Akron Christian Reformed Church Deacon Board, Chair